

From the Trudeau Airport Montreal to the Delta Centre Ville, you could rent a car or you could:

Fix rate of $38.00 to Downtown Hotels (max 4 passengers)

The Express Bus 747 runs from the Airport to Downtown and is specifically designed for people travelling with luggage. Cost is $8.00, coins only, does not accept paper or plastic money. There are two stops that are 20 minutes walk/10 minutes taxi cab from the Delta: the bus terminal and Rene Levesque & Mansfield.

At the airport, follow the signs to public transport. You will see a bus symbol. The 747 picks people up towards the end of the pick up area, on the roadway that passes alongside the doors (not the further roadway, where many other buses stop). You will see a sign, and there will probably be a line of people waiting.

This bus does not accept bills, but it does accept coins. If you don't have coins, there is a machine that is just inside the door which will accept bills. The cost is $8 (Canadian). When you use the machine, you will get a card to use when you board the bus. When boarding the bus, insert the coins into the coin slot or scan the card you got from the machine. Keep the card; it's good on the bus and metro network for the next 24 hours.

More info about this bus service, visit: www.stm.info/english/info/a-747.htm