

SUBJECT OF PRESENTATION: AIR CANADA SECURITY

Mr Gilles Charrest joined the Royal Canadian Mounted police in 1975. He worked in several departments in the provinces of Manitoba, British Columbia and Quebec

In April 2001, joined Air Canada Corporate Security and was in charge of all Eastern Canada, Eastern United States, Europe, French Caribbean's and also security of Air Canada CEO

In November 2007, he was promoted to Sr. Director, Air Canada Corporate Security

My presentation will be:

What Air Canada Security is all about?

What we do on a daily basis Our responsibility world wide The difficulties we encounter The type of investigation we conduct

Our relation with the different Government authorities, like Transport Canada, TSA, Police

The regulatory in the airline industry

This is my photo when I joined AC. Not sending a passport photo, we can't smile on those photos and it is "bloody" scary.
